Recipe Card

U2.....Far Away (So Close) 5:00

Their name alone is recognized across the world for not only music, but for philanthropic and humanitarian causes. In the early 1990s, U2 was progressing in popularity and experimenting with styles of music that are more concrete in their current sound. From their Zooropa album, this previews a conversation later in the hour.

Platter 1

Served with heaping portions of musical flavor not heard anywhere else

The Young Veins.....Change 2:30

A new single out from this band composed of members from Panic At The Disco, from their Take A Vacation! album and making their debut on The Appetizer.

I. Stoops.....Miss Slow 4:00

Another indie rock band making their debut on our radio program with musical flavor that's unreleased at this time. More information on the band at www.myspace.com/jstoomsmusic

Glen Hansard.....Trying To Pull Myself Away 3:39

Formerly apart of The Swell Season with (then) wife Marketa Irglova, this song comes from the hit Soundtrack to Once.

The Sounds.....Ego 2:44

Indie alternative/ new wave rock from this band out of Sweden, this song is fresh off their album Dying To Say This To You.

Transition and Segue for Local Break (Music Bed)

U2.....Promenade 1:00

Another teaser for a subject matter later in the hour, from the band's Unforgettable Fire release.

Conversation with Appetizer listeners and fan Blane Singletary-Hardcore Alan Parsons fan

Platter 2

We followup our talk with Blane by featuring some of his suggestions for The Alan Parsons Project

Alan Parsons Project.....Ammonia Avenue 6:30

As Blane Singletary stated, this track is known by die-hard fans on Parsons, but few others. Found on the Ammonia Avenue album available on iTunes.

Alan Parsons Project.....Winding Me Up 4:00

Found of the Eve album released in 2008, the album also contains music written in the late 1970s.

Conversation with Appetizer fan, web designer, and creative genius Michael Hagerty

Platter 3

Closing out the hour with music talked about in our conversation with Mike about his favorite band U2

U2.....So Cruel 5:49

One of the fan favorite tracks from Achtung Baby that slipped through the cracks and is being rediscovered now.
